

The background image shows three large, standing statues of ancient Egyptian pharaohs, likely Amenhotep III, positioned between two massive, decorated columns. The statues are carved from light-colored stone and wear traditional Egyptian attire, including a kilt and a broad collar. The columns are also decorated with hieroglyphs and have papyrus-bundle capitals. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting an outdoor or well-lit indoor setting.

Marks of a Prepared Man

(Part I of Genesis 41)

I. Joseph is authentically humble and uncompromisingly direct
about God.

I. Joseph is authentically
humble and
uncompromisingly direct
about God.

Think on it: In the past week, to what extent have I bragged on God?

II. Joseph's life gives evidence to the fact that God is real.

II. Joseph's life gives evidence to the fact that God is real.

Think on it: To what extent does my life put God's saving grace on display?

III. Power & Prosperity doesn't ruin Joseph – He remembers God!

