

The background of the slide features a photograph of an ancient Egyptian temple interior. It shows several large, light-colored stone columns with hieroglyphs and papyrus-bundle capitals. Between the columns stand several statues of female figures, likely goddesses or queens, wearing traditional Egyptian attire including a headdress with a cobra and a long, pleated dress. The scene is brightly lit, casting shadows on the stone surfaces.

Facing Fear God's Way

(Genesis 46:1-8)

I Samuel 3:20

<sup>20</sup> All Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samuel was confirmed as a prophet of the LORD.

I Kings 4:25

<sup>25</sup> So Judah and Israel lived in safety, every man under his vine and his fig tree, from Dan even to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon.

The background of the slide features a faded, golden-yellow image of ancient Egyptian statues and hieroglyphs. The statues are standing in a row, and the hieroglyphs are carved into the walls behind them. The overall tone is warm and historical.

Psalm 56:3-4; 10-11

- <sup>3</sup> When I am afraid, I will put my trust in You.
- <sup>4</sup> In God, whose word I praise, in God I have put my trust; I shall not be afraid. What can mere man do to me?
- <sup>10</sup> In God, whose word I praise, in the LORD, whose word I praise,
- <sup>11</sup> In God I have put my trust, I shall not be afraid. What can man do to me?
