

Blessings & Benefits of Bible Study

Lesson 3

Memorize (Select One) –

- ✓ Joshua 1:8 - This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it; for then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have success.
- ✓ Psalm 119:16 - I shall delight in Your statutes; I shall not forget Your word.

The fruit of Bible study is the personal growth that leads to spiritual maturity. A growing Christian will enjoy the Lord, with the blessings that accompany an obedient life. Those who are effective in service are equipped through a growing knowledge of the will of God. They have learned how the doer of the Word will experience the benefits and blessings of implementing God's truth into their daily lives.

1. According to Luke 11:28, who are those who are blessed?

2. Read Matthew 7:24-27. How did Jesus describe a foolish man?

3. Based upon James 1:25, what kind of person will experience God's blessing?

Read the following passages and match the benefit of God's Word to the appropriate verse (answers found below):

1. Psalm 119:9 _____
2. Psalm 119:98 _____
3. Psalm 119:105 _____
4. John 5:39 _____
5. Ephesians 6:10 _____

6. II Timothy 3:17 _____
7. Titus 1:9 _____
8. I Peter 2:2 _____

(Knowing Christ, spiritual strength, personal purity, guidance/direction, wisdom, knowing sound doctrine and refuting error, equipped for service, personal growth).

II Corinthians 5:9; Colossians 1:10; and I Thessalonians 4:1 each express the Apostle Paul's goal in life. In agreement with Paul, every Christian ought to affirm that the greatest blessing and benefit of personal study of the Scriptures is the fact in so doing, you know that you are _____ God.