

C.A.R.E. Group Questions 11/25/18

1. Why is "What Has Jesus Done" far more important than "What Would Jesus Do" in the life of a twice-born believer?
2. What is your response to being identified as God's "workmanship?"
3. Have you ever considered "your worth and your unworthiness?" How do you acknowledge that tension and keep the focus on the truth of your conversion?
4. How are good works an indispensable part of our salvation? How do you balance that with the biblical truth of salvation "by grace, through faith?"
5. Why should our good works begin in the setting of the local church?
