

C.A.R.E. Group Questions 12/9/18

1. Biblically speaking, why is there no peace for the wicked? What are some places in scripture that illustrate this point?
2. Do you see a parallel between "rest" in the Old Testament and "peace" in the New Testament? Consider Israel's pursuit of "rest" and their ultimate failure to achieve it.
3. Discuss the illustrations used by Paul to characterize those who believe as a city, a family, and a temple. Which is your favorite?
4. The three elements of the temple show us a blueprint of sorts for the church. What was most compelling to you in considering the construction of God's "temple?"
5. What are your thoughts on the fact that the Spirit of God dwells within us both individually and corporately? And how should that impact our day-to-day lives with one another at PBC?
