

C.A.R.E. Group Questions    12/16/18

1. Why are there so many skeptics of the Word of God today? Do you think it is more prevalent today than at other times in history?
2. Why is it vital for the believer to understand that our Bible is rooted in history? How is that different than other "holy books?"
3. Why is the Transfiguration a perfect example to undergird Peter's affirmation of the Word of God?
4. Based on how Peter, Paul, and others speak about Scripture, how does that give us insight into the early church's understanding of the growing nature of NT Scripture?
5. Why is the doctrine of inerrancy so controversial, even within many Christian circles? Why are so many throwing in the towel on such a fundamental doctrine?
