

C.A.R.E. Group Questions 12/30/18

1. Together read Ephesians 3:1-21. Discuss the significance of Paul saying he is Christ's prisoner. How is our response to our circumstances more important than the circumstances themselves?
2. How did Paul's conversion and commissioning to go to the Gentiles require a God given stewardship? To what extent was Paul's life radically changed? Give ways Christ has brought radical change to your life.
3. Review the miracle of the double union. How does your union with others impact your thinking toward those saints who rub you the wrong way? How does a right view of love relate to you and others?
4. Review the 3-fold application given at the bottom of the outline. How are these important reminders for us?
